

Reflections

Lesson 8

Parents do many things for their children—sometime out of love, and sometimes for selfish reasons. In the following table, describe how a parent can reflect God’s love in each activity.

A parent can...

With godly love

Give rules	By explaining the rules clearly; by designing rules that teach and train their children
Give gifts
Correct a mistake
Point out a sin
Listen to a child’s problems
Talk about God

If you ever have the privilege to be a parent, ask God to help you reflect His love to your children.

Peace in the Storm

Read Luke 15:11-32.

- How did one son waste his father’s provision (vv. 12-13)?
- Why did he return home (vv. 16-19)?
- What did the father do when he saw his son again (vv. 20-24)?
- When Jesus told this parable, His audience may have been surprise by what the father did. So, Christ mirrored their expectations with the reaction of the other, older son (vv. 28-29). How did the father respond to his older son (vv. 31-32)?

Reflections

Lesson 8

Parents do many things for their children—sometime out of love, and sometimes for selfish reasons. In the following table, describe how a parent can reflect God’s love in each activity.

A parent can...

With godly love

Give rules	By explaining the rules clearly; by designing rules that teach and train their children
Give gifts
Correct a mistake
Point out a sin
Listen to a child’s problems
Talk about God

If you ever have the privilege to be a parent, ask God to help you reflect His love to your children.

Peace in the Storm

Read Luke 15:11-32.

- How did one son waste his father’s provision (vv. 12-13)?
- Why did he return home (vv. 16-19)?
- What did the father do when he saw his son again (vv. 20-24)?
- When Jesus told this parable, His audience may have been surprise by what the father did. So, Christ mirrored their expectations with the reaction of the other, older son (vv. 28-29). How did the father respond to his older son (vv. 31-32)?