

Reflections

Lesson 9

The following statements describe ways that Christ shared truth with us. For each example, give one way that parents can show similar care for their children.

- Christ drove the corrupt lenders and merchants from the Temple so that people could gather to Him, be healed, and listen to His teaching (Matt. 21:12-16).

---

---

- Christ washed His Disciples' feet (John 13:1-11).

---

---

- Though we were sinners, Christ showed God's love by dying for us (Rom. 5:8).

---

---

- In heaven today, Christ speaks on our behalf (Rom. 8:34).

Peace in the Storm

Read Hebrews 12.

- How can Christ's example motivate us (vv. 1-4)?
- How does God's discipline help us develop and grow (vv. 5-11)?
- In what practical ways should we exercise self-control (vv. 12-17)?
- In a way, the Old Testament Law prepared Israel for Christ's new kingdom. Why is the new covenant so much more important than the old (vv. 18-27)?
- For what can we be grateful (vv. 28-29)?

Reflections

Lesson 9

The following statements describe ways that Christ shared truth with us. For each example, give one way that parents can show similar care for their children.

- Christ drove the corrupt lenders and merchants from the Temple so that people could gather to Him, be healed, and listen to His teaching (Matt. 21:12-16).

---

---

- Christ washed His Disciples' feet (John 13:1-11).

---

---

- Though we were sinners, Christ showed God's love by dying for us (Rom. 5:8).

---

---

- In heaven today, Christ speaks on our behalf (Rom. 8:34).

Peace in the Storm

Read Hebrews 12.

- How can Christ's example motivate us (vv. 1-4)?
- How does God's discipline help us develop and grow (vv. 5-11)?
- In what practical ways should we exercise self-control (vv. 12-17)?
- In a way, the Old Testament Law prepared Israel for Christ's new kingdom. Why is the new covenant so much more important than the old (vv. 18-27)?
- For what can we be grateful (vv. 28-29)?